DR. FOOTE, SENIOR

OF 120 LEXINGTON AVENUE, NEW YORK.
HEREBY CAUTIONS THE PUBLIC
NOT to employ or communicate with a man styling himself "Dr. Foot, Jr." without making inquiry.

This man came to Salt Lake City representing himself as the son of Dr. E. B. Foote, of New York, the well-known specialist, and as abundantly proved by affidavit. As he changed his name from an expose made in the New York City Herald, he is now known as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., the son of Dr. E. B. Foote, Sr., of New York City. Dr. E. B. Foote, Sr., is a well-known author, Mr. John F. Trow, of New York City, forty years in the directory business, and the Hon. ASHMAN WARREN, for many years Postmaster in New York City, also years ago gave their affidavits that there are no other doctors in New York City by the name of Foote or Foot, excepting Dr. E. B. Foote, Sr., the author of "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and Dr. HENRY T. Foote. The genuine Dr. Foote, Jr., will hereafter always employ the initials, E. B., in designating his name. Heretofore he has been known not only at home but wherever his publications have been circulated, by the name of Dr. Foot, Jr. Greater care will be taken hereafter, in view of the fact that an unprincipled person has assumed to pose as Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., and his father's reputation.

Those desiring further and more detailed information in respect to this matter, will receive it by addressing Box 414, Salt Lake City, Utah.

Persons having information of advantage to plaintiffs will kindly communicate the same to J. W. Ivey, with Sutherland & McBrine, Salt Lake City.

Those desiring to consult Dr. Foote professionally or to order remedies should address either
Dr. E. B. FOOTE, Sr., or
Dr. E. B. FOOTE, Jr.,
120 Lexington Ave., New York.
Communication free, in person or by letter.

ROTTEN EGGS AND LORNE.

The Reception Accorded to the Son-
in-Law of the Queen

LONDON, October 20.—It is now evident that the Parliamentary campaign will not pass off without serious rioting in certain quarters, as party feeling, which already runs high, daily grows more bitter. The Marquis of Lorne, liberal candidate for Hampstead, went to Brentford town, seven miles west of London, to deliver a campaign speech. While addressing the electors, a mob assailed him with rotten eggs, and some of them gaining the platform, smashed his hat over his head. The supporters of the marquis rushed to his rescue and a fight ensued. The noble lord now became so thoroughly frightened that he hastily departed from the scene, and ran through the streets in a drenching rain towards the way station, and immediately departed for London. Meanwhile the fight continued, the supporters of the marquis being severely handled, and becoming discouraged at their desertion by their champion, they retired, leaving their contestants masters of the field. They seized the platform, and passed resolutions condemning the policy of the Liberals.

When the Queen's son-in-law made his appearance as the Liberal candidate for Hampstead, it occasioned considerable surprise, and when he put forward in his address advanced Radical opinions, the surprise greatly increased. He adopted Chamberlain's programme of free education, and advocated immediate disestablishment in Scotland. He championed the principles of free land league and suggested that the sale of large estates en bloc should be subject to heavy taxation while the sales of land to be divided into smaller lots should be left duty free. As to the House of Lords, he hardly went so far as the Hampstead radicals desired, being of the opinion that the venerable institution might be amended by the infusion of the elected members. He favored the extension of local self-government to Ireland.

Ferdinand's Trial.

NEW YORK, October 24.—The trial of Ferdinand Ward was continued to-day. The court room was crowded. The work of obtaining a jury was resumed. Ward was well-dressed but looked harassed. As he took his seat, U. S. Grant, Jr., looked savagely at him, but Ward avoided his gaze, and his counsel engaged in conversation with him to divert his attention. Up to 1 o'clock the twelfth juror had not been secured. The twelfth juror was obtained shortly after 1 o'clock and the panel sworn in, after which a recess was taken.

Foreign Mails.

TORONTO, October 24.—A dispatch from London to the Globe says: The Imperial postoffice authorities are now advertising for tenders for the conveyance of mails from Coal Harbor, British Columbia, to the Island of Hong Kong. The advertisement calls for fortnightly service by way of Yokohama, both outward and homeward. The present contracts of the conveyance of British mails to China terminate January 31st, 1888. Tenders in response to the present offer may be sent in up to March 31st, 1888. This is regarded here as an important recognition of the Canadian Pacific route.

Spaniards and Schools.

LONDON, October 24.—The Times correspondent at Madrid telegraphs that the Spanish government threatened to seize the furniture and books of the school belonging to Rev. Mr. Jameson, Presbyterian minister, and a British subject, unless he paid £28 for stamps on the school account books. Jameson borrowed the money and paid it in order to prevent the seizure.

Warner's Case.

NEW YORK, October 24.—The examination in the Warner case was continued to-day. No witnesses were examined, but a number of checks were put in evidence. These were identified by ex-Cashier Spencer, of the defunct firm of Grant & Ward, as being in the handwriting of Ward and made payable to his order. The case was then adjourned.

Evasive and Unsatisfactory.

LONDON, October 24.—The reply of the Spanish government to the protest of Great Britain against the recent outrage on the British consulate at Havana is considered evasive and unsatisfactory in official circles here.

The Political Prisoners.

PARIS, October 24.—It is likely that the new Chamber of Deputies will pronounce in favor of general amnesty to political prisoners, including Louise Michel and Prince Krapotkin.

Francis Will Enter.

PARIS, October 24.—France has agreed to enter the Balkan conference with certain restrictions.

A Bishop Dead.

LONDON, October 24.—Right Reverend James B. Woodford, D. D., bishop of Ely, is dead.

Warning!

It is not to be wondered at that most Americans are dyspeptics. Swallowing ice cold drinks on a hot summer day does the mischief. Why then not add ten drops of Angostura Bitters, the world-renowned tonic of exquisite flavor, and thus avoid all danger of cold in the stomach.
